Re: Maryland Public Information Act requests

Dear Mr. Jordan:

The City has conducted a search for records in accordance with your MPIA requests. Despite efforts to narrow your request, the City has expended substantial staff search and review time to find and process the records. The email administrator has conducted email searches of the following email accounts - S. Ullery, P. Gajewski, G. Cohen and B. Hall cross-referenced with the word "Redgate." In addition, the email administrator searched emails to or from Theresa Defino and her email account and Art Stigile and his two email accounts. These searches produced well over 6,000 results that were printed and reviewed by staff for their responsiveness to your request, accounting for more than 40 hours of staff time. Staff has attempted to pull duplicates and non-responsive material. However, given the magnitude of the search, staff has been unable to completely remove all duplicates. Further, attachments to records were not printed due to the vast number of attachments found in your search. Any attachments that you would like produced need to be retrieved and reviewed before they may be produced.

Additional searches are necessary to fully comply with your request. The City will not charge for the search that has already been conducted. However any additional search and review will be charged to you at $40.00 per hour. Copies of records and attachments that you identify will be provided to you at .10 per page, with the first 40 pages copied for free.

Once you have reviewed the available documents please let me know which documents you would like copies of, and how you wish to proceed with the remainder of your request.

Sincerely,

Louise Atkins
