Supplemental Information

A description of services provided to the community by the organizations receiving funding follows. Organizations are listed alphabetically.

Chase Partnership Shelter — Established in 1986, Chase Shelter provides housing, counseling and training programs to homeless men recovering from drug or alcohol addiction. The program came under the direction of the Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington, Inc. in FY 2012.

Child Center and Adult Services, Inc. — This program, Positive Aging Project: Mental Health Services, provides mental health services and early intervention services for seniors who attend the Rockville Senior Center.

Chinese Culture and Community Service Center Inc (CCACC) — This organization provides health, senior, and community service programs through scheduled seminars, health and community service fairs, and other outreach programs. The following programs are sponsored by the CCACC:

CCACC English Literacy Program — This program provides English instruction classes to recent immigrants in Rockville and Montgomery County at the Rockville Senior Center, Lincoln Park Community Center, and locations in Montrose community.

CCACC Health Clinic — This program provides free primary care, case management, prescription drugs and low-cost lab tests, as well as referral services to specialists.

Community Ministries of Rockville — This organization was founded in 1967 to work with local governments to serve the needs of residents through education regarding the needs of the poor and displaced, advocacy on their behalf, and direct service to support them. The following programs are sponsored by Community Ministries:

Elderly Ministries — Established in 1981, this program provides basic housekeeping and personal care to frail, homebound, elderly persons with chronic disabilities and temporary respite for persons released from hospitals that require limited support.

Jefferson House — Established in 1991 as a Personal Living Quarters, this program provides affordable housing and ongoing relapse prevention services for homeless men who have finished a formal addiction treatment program.

Latino Outreach Program — Established in 1993, this educational program provides instruction in basic English to Latino adults while their children receive homework tutoring and substance abuse prevention education. Services currently are provided at Maryvale, Meadow Hall and Twinbrook Elementary Schools, and two local churches.

Mansfield Kaseman Health Program — Working collaboratively with Care For Your Health, Inc., this program provides outreach, scheduling and translation assistance, case management, and service coordination to assure that Rockville residents obtain needed medical care.

Rockville Emergency Assistance Program (REAP) — Established in 1982 by Rockville's Mayor and Council, REAP provides short-term, last resort, emergency assistance to Rockville residents to prevent evictions, utility shutoffs and provide limited prescription assistance.

Interfaith Works (formerly Community Ministry of Montgomery County) — This organization was founded in 1972 and is an interfaith coalition of more than 140 congregations of diverse faiths in Montgomery County. Its advocacy and social service programs include the following:

Friends in Action/Amigos En Accion — Established in 1986, this program links low-income, at-risk families with teams of congregation-based volunteer mentors who assist these families in identifying and building their strengths to become self-supporting.

Horizon House — Established in 2001, this program provides low-rent housing for homeless adults with physical and/or mental disabilities. A personal case manager encourages the residents to further their skills and ability to live independently.

Interfaith Clothing Center — Established in 1965, this program collects and distributes free clothing, furniture, and household items to low-income men, women, and children who are referred by public or private service agencies.

Wilkins Avenue Assessment Center and Shelter for Women (formerly Sophia House) — Established in 1997 by the Community Ministries of Rockville, Sophia House is now operated by Interfaith Works. It provides emergency transitional shelter for single women to address their needs for housing and access to community services.

Dorothy Day Place — First established in 1985, this transitional shelter provides intensive case management, housing and job counseling, referrals, life skills presentations, and other supportive assistance to women experiencing homelessness. Women stay an average of one year.

Healthy Families Montgomery — Established in 1996 under the sponsorship of Family Services Agency Inc., this program provides home-based services to first-time mothers who are at high-risk for child abuse and neglect. Beginning in the prenatal months, families receive weekly home visits that provide education and role modeling in parenting skills, early childhood development, and health and safety issues along with referrals to health and other community resources.
