

Information about John Telesco in support of his appointment as Chair of the Traffic and Transportation Commission:

John Telesco was appointed to the Traffic and Transportation Commission in November 2007 and reappointed in January 2010. In his submission for reappointment, Mr. Telesco stressed his advocacy for pedestrian and bicyclist accommodation in Rockville while serving as a member of the Commission. He has also been active with the Rockville Bike Advisory Committee and the Washington, D.C. Area Bicyclist Association.

In December, the Commission voted to recommend Mr. Telesco as the new chair of the Commission to replace Elizabeth Crane.
